You are no doubt all too aware of America's continuing moral decline. The evidence is both overwhelming and disputable. You may be unaware, though, just how far and how swiftly we have slipped. William Bennett has recently released through the auspices of the Heritage Foundation "The Index of Leading Cultural Indicators," a statistical portrait of the nation's behavioral trends since 1960. His finding are alarming. According to Bennett's study, the population has increased 41% while violent crime has jumped 560%. Divorces have quadrupled. The teenage suicide rate has risen 200%. Illegitimate births have increased 400%. Today, 30% of all births and 68% of black births are illegitimate. What has gone wrong? Consider these questions carefully. During the past thirty-four years, have we as a nation drawn closer to God, or have we slipped farther away from God? Have we placed a greater emphasis on the Bible, or have we neglected the Bible? Have religion and spiritual matters generally been advanced, or have they been pushed aside in favor of secular concerns? Are our families attending worship services, praying and reading the Bible more often, or less often now than families a generation ago? The answers are painfully obvious. We are reaping what we have sown. The Bible has been right all along. "Righteousness exalts a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people" (Proverbs 14:34). The solution to America's most pressing problems may be found within each of us, in a renewed and determined commitment to put God and His will first in our lives. As people, we don't need more government. We surely don't need more selfish greed or self-promotional grandstanding. What we need is what we have always needed. WE NEED GOD!

What Have I Done to Be So Blessed?

She looks through eyes that find the good.
Through eyes filled with years of love,
And asks, "What have I done to be so blessed?"
As she looks to the Father above.

Her answer is found in many ways.
But mostly in the life she lives.
It is found in the hours - the days - the years
As all of herself she gives.

When she could have chosen to live for self,
To seek earthly gain and pleasure;
She chose unselfishly time and again
To live for her family - her treasure.

When sorrows and pain came as they often do
She was there to help all be strong.
Of times it seemed there was nowhere to turn
But she went forward and took us along.

"What have I done to be so blessed?"
Is the question she asks the Father above
And it comes as a shock to the children she's reared
For they've felt so much of her love.

"What have I done to be so blessed?"
It's a question that's asked by some.
But it should be asked most by ones like me
By the ones with a godly Mom!

To my mom - the best in the world

MEMORIAL DAY

And I'm proud to be an American,
where at least I know I'm free.
And I won't forget the men who died,
who gave that right to me.
~Lee Greenwood

They are dead; but they live in each
Patriot's breast,
And their names are engraven on honor's bright crest.
~Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

But the freedom that they fought for,
and the country grand they wrought for,
Is their monument to-day, and for aye.
~Thomas Dunn English

The patriot's blood is the seed of Freedom's tree. ~Thomas Campbell

A hero is someone who has given his or her life to something bigger than oneself. ~Joseph Campbell
