THE HOUSE
YOU BUILD

By Author Unknown

An elderly carpenter was ready to retire. He told his employer/contractor of his plans to leave the house-building business and live a more leisurely life with his wife, enjoying his extended family. He would miss the paycheck, but he needed to retire. They could get by.

The contractor was sorry to see his good worker go and asked if he could build just one more house as a personal favor. The carpenter said yes, but in time it was easy to see that his heart was not in his work. He resorted to shoddy workmanship and used inferior materials. It was an unfortunate way to end a dedicated career.

When the carpenter finished his work the employer came to inspect the house. He handed the front door key to the carpenter. "This is your house;" he said, "my gift to you."

How did you do? Did you get them all?

The carpenter was shocked! What a shame! If he had only known he was building his own house, he would have done it all so differently.

So it is with us. We build our lives, a day at a time, often putting less than our best into the building. Then with a shock we realize we have to live in the house we have built. If we could do it over, we'd do it much differently. But we cannot go back.

You are the carpenter. Each day you hammer a nail, place a board, erect a wall. "Life is a do-it-yourself project," someone has said. Your attitudes and the choices you make today, build the "house" you live in tomorrow. Build wisely!

"What's Wrong with a Little Fun?"

Our young people run into a lot of temptation in the form of other young adults who try to get them to sin. When young Christians resist, they are often met with, "What's wrong with a little fun?" Or, "How can this hurt you?" I want to give our young adults a few specifics to help when they hear others say the above, or when others, in essence, say, "Why don't you sin, Christian?"

1. Because I love the Lord (John 14:15).
2. Because I want to retain my self-respect (Ephesians 4:1).
3. Because God is watching (Revelation 2:2-4).
4. Because non-believers are watching (1 Corinthians 6:6).
5. Because a moment of pleasure could cause me a mountain of pain (Galatians 6:7-8; John 8:34; 2 Peter 2:20-22).
6. Because sin is the broad way that leads to destruction (Matthew 7:13-14).
7. Because I want to remain unspotted from the world (James 1:27).
8. Because sin nailed the Redeemer to the cross (2 Corinthians 5:21).

The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, to turn one away from the snares of death. Proverbs 14:27
